

BOXES OF LIGHT

Presented to the Faculty of Mount Holyoke College in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts with Honors

South Hadley, Massachusetts
1994

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank most of all my thesis advisors Robert Shaw and Mary Jo Salter for their comments, suggestions, and encouragement. Thanks to Dzvina Orlosky and CD Wright for their help during this summer's Mount Holyoke Writers' Conference, and to Michael Pettit for making my participation in the conference possible; warmest thanks also to Jennifer K. Dick, il miglior fabbro.

Grateful acknowledgement to Dean Ruth Bass Green and the Mount Holyoke Summer Research Fellowship Program for their support.

Special thanks go to Lee Bowie for his humor, sensitivity and patience, to Bill Quillian for making a way in the wilderness, and most of all to Penny Gill, to whom this thesis is dedicated, for helping me become who I am.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ANNOTATED TABLE OF CONTENTS	4
PRELUDE	7
THE BENCH	9
ELECTRIC TREES	10
WOMEN IN LOVE WITH DOGS	12
SESTINA	13
RIVER PHOENIX, 1970-1993	15
WHY I PRETEND	16
SUZANNE AT GALVESTON	17
NOTES FOR AN AUBADE	19
I FED THE MUSE TODAY	20
ODE TO OUR GENEROUS NOSES	21
THREE SHORT POEMS	23
STANZAS AFTER BYRON	24
NOLI ME TANGERE	27
STUDYING YOU	29
TWO CAR POEMS	31
THE MUSE AT LAST MAKES GOOD HER ESCAPE	32
THE MAKING OF A PARISIENNE	33
LETTER TO JANE	36
THE VILLAGE	37
ON BEING ONE OF THE ONLY TWO BUDDHISTS IN TOWN	38
HALVES	39
BOXES OF LIGHT	40
PAR AVION	43
THE ONE ABOUT YOU	44
MARIPOSA LILIES	45
ECCE HOMO	46
WHAT I CHOSE TO TELL	48
THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF POLAND	49

I unshelter you—my vanishing dialogue, my remnant, my provision.

—Tess Gallagher